UMHC Champions Kids! Kids don't ask to be abused or neglected. They never wanted to be removed from their homes. Our kids just want what all kids want: to feel safe, to be loved, and to know that their lives matter. You can join a team of social service and care professionals who work to make a positive difference in their lives.

"...Working with kids at the Children's Home is a unique experience within the social work universe. Our kids require care workers who have a deep dedication to working with youth. We need people who can bring a mind, body and spirit-filled approach to vulnerable kids."
